TRAVEL BAG Wii ATOMIC

TRAVEL BAG Wii ATOMIC

Comfortable and practical half-rigid travel bag designed to easily and safely transport the Nintendo Wii™ console and all of its accessories.

NEW! BIGGER! The bag can now hold a second pair of Wii Remote™ and Nunchuk™.

Two different carrying modes: by adjustable shoulder belt or by handle.

The bag's inner space is partitioned in two padded, protective slots: one to hold the console and one to hold the power pack and the video cable. There are also 4 memory card slots and 5 game slots.

The bag's outer features a wide, enlarged front slot to carry 2 Wii Remote™ and 2 Nunchuk™, and also the sensor bar. There are also two thin pockets to hold documents or other flat, thin accessories.

Made in hard-wearing material outside and padded in soft, protective material inside. Closing system by comfortable zips.

Colour available: white and light blue with grey finishes.
